

THE THRILOW DAFFODIL WEEKEND TRUST

Youth Award for Good Citizenship

Aim

To encourage good citizenship by making awards to members of the village under the age of 21 years who participate in projects which directly provide benefits for others, or their environment, particularly those less privileged, either locally, nationally or internationally.

Name

The name of the award shall be The Thriplow Daffodil Weekend Trust Youth Award for Good Citizenship.

Procedure

Applications in writing shall be made to the Secretary of the Trust and received not later than May 1. Applicants must be resident in the parish of Thriplow and not more than 21 years of age on the following September 30. Applicants should state their full name, date of birth, address, should give the names of two referees who shall not be members of their family. The application should state in 250 to 500 words the nature of the project for which they seek support. Literature pertaining to the project should be provided if available. A letter of recommendation from the organising body of the project should be included if appropriate.

Applications will normally be considered by all the current Trustees at the time of the annual general application of grants. If no suitable application is before them, the Trustees may make no award that year.

Successful applicants shall provide to the Trustees, a written Report of 500 to 1000 words together with relevant graphic material in the year following the Award, or at some later suitable date of not more than two years after the Award subject to prior agreement of the Trustees. Recipients shall be encouraged to make a presentation, based on their experiences and report to a meeting at which all members of the village shall be invited (which may be the traditional Open Meeting). Recipients shall prepare a summary of the Report to be submitted to the Thriplow Society and to Thriplow News.

Review

All matters pertaining to the Award will be subject to review and to ratification at a formal meeting of the Trustees.

Geoff Link
Chair of Trustees

Revised December 2014

Charity Number 1054288